

Marco Maljaars

Marco Maljaars lives in the small place Velsen Noord, The Netherlands and born in 1975. He is a self-taught photographer. Since his teenage years he was addicted to photography and experimented with long exposure times with an analogue camera. Today he works with a digital camera. His main interests are seascapes and landscapes with a minimalistic approach and long exposure.

